Demoblaze E-Commerce Site

FRS Document

Story 1:

- Launching the website should land on Home page …
  https://www.demoblaze.com/

- If the user is new, he/she should sign up to place an order.

- If the user is an existing or already registered user, he/she should be able to login with user credentials which is a combination of username and password.

Story 2:

- At the top of the Home page, carousel images should be displayed.
- On Home page all the products should be listed in the card format.
- The product should have all the relevant details about the product.
- On click of different categories such as phones, Laptop and Monitors, user should be able to see the relevant product list and details.

Story 3:

- On Click of card, Product details followed by Device name, price, Product description should be displayed and user should be able to add the product to the Cart.
- The Added item should be visible in the cart section.